

CASEY D. BRADLEY

Magnolia Tx, 77354 | 281.733.5870 | Caseyb9315@yahoo.com

OBJECTIVE

To obtain employment using my degree in Petroleum Engineering that can potentially become a lifelong career.

SKILLS & ABILITIES

I am a creative thinker, and great team player. When handed a problem, I assess thoroughly and execute after communicating effective procedures with my team.

EXPERIENCE

Engine Technician, Sunrise Helicopters May 2018 – Current Spring, TX

- Disassembled and inventoried all components of jet & helicopter turbine engines.

Fabricator, J3M Fabrication April 2017 – September 2017
Magnolia, TX

- Completed welding tasks and Project Management tasks to execute a 200-unit project for a customer. Also, operated plasma cutting table.

CRT Technician, Helmerich & Payne Drilling August 2012 – September 2016
Seguin, TX

- Supervise casing running operations. Service and maintain equipment, Create job tickets for billing, and train new employees.
- Experience running McCoy Torque Turn Computer software.
- Obtained multiple different certifications that contractors required.

EDUCATION

Texas A&M – College Station, TX – Petroleum Engineering

- Currently a senior working towards my bachelor's in petroleum engineering.
- Graduating December 2021.

Lonestar College – Montgomery, TX – Petroleum Engineering

- Completed courses required to transfer to Texas A&M.

REFERENCES

Can provide upon request.