

Durr Minor IV

713-598-6460 | gavinlminor@tamu.edu

Petroleum Engineering

Knowledgeable and driven Petroleum Engineering student from Texas A&M University looking for a summer internship. Adapt at learning new technologies/software. Avid outdoorsman with previous blue-collar work.

Graduation in December 2024.

GPA: 2.75

Skills

- Proficient in IP 2019, Python, XLWings, Word, Excel, and PowerPoint
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills
- Valuable leader and team player

Education

Pursuing Bachelor of Science in Petroleum Engineering with a Geology Minor

Completed Courses:

- PETE 310 – Reservoir Fluids
- PETE 321 – Formation Evaluation
- PETE 323 – Reservoir Engineering
- PETE 324 – Well Testing
- PETE 325 – Production Systems
- PETE 355 – Drilling Engineering

Current Courses:

- PETE 401 – Reservoir Simulation
- PETE 404 -Reservoir Modeling
- PETE 410 – Production Engineering
- PETE 437 – Sr. Student Paper Contest
- GEOL 306 - Sedimentology

Work Experience

- Wald Relocation: 2020 – 2021 (summers)
 - General Laborer, learned how to take inventory for large warehouses and manage large amounts of items.
- Keystone Concrete: 2019 (summer)
 - Worked for landscaping portion of company. 50+ hour weeks as a general laborer while learning their computer modeling in the office.
- DarqueTan: 2016-2018 (summers)
 - Completed maintenance tasks for all stores in Houston, Tx. Resolved problems and delivered inventory while reporting to corporate office.

Leadership Experience

- TAMU SPE Member – 2022 – present
- Coastal Conservation Association (CCA) Member – 2020-present
- Officer in Texas A&M's CCA Chapter – 2021-2023